

Art Across School – Autumn 1 2024

The children have continued to wow and impress with their hard work in art lessons. Here are some examples of their learning this half term:

Year 1

Year 2

Year 3

Year 3

Year 3

is and media to create variations in marks and lines.

carpet	tree bark	velvet
sheep's wool	sponge	grass
metal	leather	fur

fluffy hairy
furry swirly

lumpy bumpy smooth silky soft slim rubby

hard

EDS

Tones Edges Direction Shadow
pencil

H=Hard
B=Black
HB is in the middle 9B is very black and soft H is very pale and hard

edge too dark
light source
edge too dark

TEDS

Tones Edges Direction Shadow
pencil

H=Hard
B=Black
HB is in the middle
9B is very black and soft
H is very pale and hard

edge too dark
light source
no direction

TEDS

Tones Edges Direction Shadow
pencil

H=hard
B=black
HB is in the middle
9B is very black and soft
H is very pale and hard

edge too dark
light source
edge too dark
No direction

Year 4

Year 4

Henry Moore painted this picture in the second world war in the underground tunnels to avoid being bombed by the blitz war. He drew two people sleeping together with war to keep warm. He was told to be a person who does people in the war by the government.

Henry Moore

Henry Moore

Henry Moore drew these pictures in a dark train tank were very one went when a war was happening. He did this because he was paid to be a war artist. He colored the pictures with water crayons, water colours and charcoal. He painted pictures of people sleeping.

Henry Moore

Henry Moore

- :When in World War II.
- :Where underground stations.
- :What people sleeping.
- :Why War Artist.

Henry Moore

The person who made this picture was a famous artist called Henry Moore. In World War II Henry Moore drew this picture in a train station under ground. This picture is of two people sleeping. He used to draw this picture with wax crayons, charcoal and watercolours.

The government asked him to be a war artist.

